Shelby Mental Health (The Hamilton Center)

The Chilton Shelby Mental Health Center at The Hamilton Center includes: Outpatient Services, Adult Intensive Day Treatment Program, Substance Abuse Services. They are very community based and are a non-profit organization that caters to those with mental illness, intellectual disabilities and/or substance use disorders. Every person is case by case and the services received will be individual and specific to the patient. Charges are on a sliding fee scale based on income and other factors, cash, self-payment, Medicaid, state financed health insurance plan other than Medicaid, or private health insurance.

The Bridge (Tuscaloosa Outpatient Addiction Treatment Center)-

The program is designed for youth between the ages of 12 and 18 who meet the American Society of Addiction Medicine's criteria for Level I or Level II treatment placement. The Tuscaloosa Outpatient Center offers outpatient, intensive outpatient, continuing care services and TASS, an evening reporting center. The service model is based on a blended therapeutic approach, drawing from four theoretical frameworks (Rogerian, behavioral, cognitive, and reality). The program emphasizes an individualized treatment plan that includes the family unit as well as the adolescent.

Phoenix House

The Phoenix House, Inc. of Tuscaloosa, Alabama is a freestanding, non-profit Transitional Housing facility (Level III.01 and III.1) that began operation in the late 1960's as a half-way house for alcoholic men and evolved to its current mission and structure in 1994. During this period, the Phoenix House provided opportunities for addiction recovery in both residential and outpatient levels of care. The primary mission is to assist individuals in their recovery from alcohol and drug addiction and help them return to society as productive members during a 90 day program. Success is achieved through individual, group and family counseling, vocational and adult education, life skills training, and job training/placements.
